- Reduce distress for parent and child
- Feel more in control
- Recruit and use supporters
- Enjoy the benefits of being part of a group

Feedback from 2 parents from earlier courses

'There has been no advice as valuable as the ideas and delivery of this course, even if some of it seems alien – hang on in there.'

'Exceptionally good, knowledgeable, and experienced course facilitators. Every adoptive family needs these people. Top marks.'

The facilitators

Kasia Kurylowicz: Practice Manager, qualified Social Worker, registered with Social Work England. Based at our Head Office in London, Kasia manages the delivery of our national Child to Parent Violence programme. Kasia has many years of experience of working with children, young people and their families in a wide range of contexts, including statutory social work, therapeutic social work and independent practice. Kasia has worked with children and families affected by parental alcohol misuse, child sexual exploitation, domestic violence, and other contexts and has completed training in Non-Violent Resistance (NVR) Level 1 and Level 2. Kasia is neurodivergent and passionate about supporting neurodivergent children and adults.

Tanya Killick: qualified Social Worker and Practice Manager. Tanya co-leads Adoptees (formerly AT-iD Project), an innovative pilot project designed and led by teenage adoptees, aimed at building friendships and giving teens a space to be themselves. Tanya is passionate about enabling adoptees to have a voice on the issues that matter to them, to improve understanding and the way we work to support people affected by adoption. Tanya supports adoptive families through PAC-UK's Child to Parent Violence (CPV) Programme co-facilitating PAC-UK's CPV Parent Groups, and delivering PAC-UK's CPV Programme to individual families. Tanya has completed training in Non Violent Resistance (NVR) Level 1 and Level 2, Dyadic Developmental Psychotherapy (DDP) Level 1 and enjoys the non-judgmental use of PACE when working with people affected by trauma.

Lizzie Harvey - Parent Graduate with lived experience of dealing with challenging behavior and implementing NVR - Participants have found it invaluable to have Parent Graduate Facilitators with lived experience (been there and got the t-shirt) as an integral part of the NVR team. Lizzie has also completed NVR Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3.
