- Reduce distress for parent and child
- Feel more in control

Feedback from 2 parents from earlier courses

'There has been no advice as valuable as the ideas and delivery of this course, even if some of it seems alien – hang on in there.'

'Exceptionally good, knowledgeable, and experienced course facilitators. Every adoptive family needs these people. Top marks.'

- Recruit and use supporters
- Enjoy the benefits of being part of a group

The facilitators

Jeanine Heismann is a registered Art Psychotherapist, NVR-UK Accredited Group Practitioner and NVR Supervisor. Jeanine has run groups for parents/carers and trained professionals in a number of settings. Jeanine has supported parents and guardians looking after children and young adults with complex needs, who have experienced criminal and sexual exploitation in the community and have become involved with gangs. Jeanine has worked with looked after children in residential care, foster care and school settings. Jeanine is passionate about using NVR to create a network of concerned adults for safeguarding children and young people and promoting positive relationships at all stages of life.

Veronique Faure studied and qualified in France as a Social Worker (HCPC Registered), and in the UK as an Integrative Arts Psychotherapist (UKCP Registered). She also obtained a Diploma in Child Psychotherapeutic Skills, and a Diploma in Clinical Supervision and Consultancy. She has 25+ years of multi-cultural inner-city professional experience, in the field of child protection, children in care and adoption. She also trained Child and Adolescent Psychotherapists for 7 years. Veronique has completed NVR Level 1 and NVR Level 2.

Parent Graduate with lived experience of dealing with challenging behavior and implementing NVR - Participants have found it invaluable to have Parent Graduate Facilitators with lived experience (been there and got the t-shirt) as an integral part of the NVR team.
